SO ORDERED:

NELSON S. ROMÁN
United States District Judge

Re: Jude v. NYS Office of Mental Health, et al.
Docket No. 22-CV-7441-NSR

Dear Judge Roman:

Yesterday, I had a lengthy legal telephone call with Mr. Jude. He requested that I write to Your Honor to ask that Your Honor not dismiss his case for lack of prosecution since he cannot represent himself and proceed Pro se at this time given his present circumstances.

He is still on 24-hour suicide watch as he has been since January 24, 2024, and is unable to receive any legal mail or make any outgoing phone calls to me, his family, or anyone else. He has no privileges since he is in an observation cell in the Diversion Unit wearing only a smock and without any personal property including his tablet, and cannot use the law library, which he loves. He has requested an emergency Restraining Order and an Injunction, so he needs an experienced prisoner's rights attorney, which I am not. He has spoken to experienced prisoner's rights attorney Amy Agnew who is trying to find pro bono attorneys from Gibson Dunn to represent Mr. Jude in the companion case before Judge Seibel. Perhaps they will also appear for him in this case. In any event She said these attorneys will need at least two weeks to receive their firm's approval to handle Mr. Jude's case pro bono.

On behalf of Mr. Jude, I respectfully request that Your Honor issue a temporary stay in this case until a new attorney appears for Mr. Jude.

I thank Your Honor for all the courtesies extended to me and Mr. Jude.

MEMO ENDORSED

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Andrew J. Spinnell".
